An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ann M. Cannoni on June 1, 2006.

Claim 34, line 8, after "anhydride" insert --with the epoxy resin--.

Claim 40, lines 4-5, replace "to an extent that a partially cured epoxy composition is obtained which forms" with --to form--.

Claim 41, line 2, replace "50 C to about 100 C" with --50°C to about 100°C--.

Claim 42, line 2, replace "composition" with --resin--.

Cancel claims 1-6, 8-22, 26-33 and 35-38.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The 35 U.S.C. 112, first and second paragraphs, rejections have been addressed by the amendment filed April 25, 2006 wherein the affirmative presence of the epoxy resin and cyclic anhydride is defined in independent claim 34. The initiation of the reaction of the cyclic anhydride in step (b) is enabled by page 8, paragraph 29, lines 1-4 of the specification wherein the initiation can be accomplished by various agents such as water, hydroxyls or a Lewis base in addition to the polyol.

Art Unit: 1712

The claimed mixing of the epoxy resin, anhydride, antioxidant and phosphor material in claimed step (a) is described on page 12, paragraph 41, lines 6-7. The claimed viscosity increase in step (b) and partial curing of step (c) is disclosed on page 13, lines 4-6 and paragraph 44, lines 1-2. Accordingly, the method of preparation of claims 34 and 39-42 is fully enabled and clearly defined.

The claimed method of preparation is not recited in the closest prior art of Japanese Patent No. 52-15539; Shaddock et al. Patent No. 6,518,600 and is distinct from the claims of parent U.S. Patent No. 6,989,412 and copending application no. 11/286,722 for the reasons espoused in the non-Final rejection mailed February 15, 2006 on page 11, paragraphs 18 and 19.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled

"Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
